

NOTICE FROM THE US FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION RE: JAPANESE FOOD PRODUCTS

Due to the situation in Japan, the FDA will be asking for documents on ALL Japanese food products and possibly sampling or examining many more.

We may be asking for information that we have not asked for previously, such as the region where the product originated and the date of shipment from that region.

As always, please be very careful in allowing shipments of Japanese food products to proceed without proper clearance.

If there is any doubt, contact me at the numbers below.

Thank you.
